

I oppose proceeding 02-278. I appreciate and am very satisfied with Indiana's Do Not Call list. This has been a very effective law. The challenge to Indiana's law is clearly an attempt to find a loophole to circumvent a law that has protected our privacy. I do not wish to be contacted in my home on my phone service by banks or any other entities soliciting or trying to sell me something.